Useful Info About Your New Neighbourhood

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR NEW HOME

Welcome to Hobsonville Point. You've chosen a great place to live. We'd like to help you get acquainted with your new neighbourhood as quickly as possible. This booklet provides you with details of, and contact information for, the services and activities available within Hobsonville Point and nearby. There is plenty of information on the website too at: hobsonvillepoint.co.nz.

Plus, keep an eye on our Facebook page for news updates.

HLC (Homes. Land. Community) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Housing New Zealand. The company is charged with overseeing the transformation of Hobsonville Point from defence base to a diverse community of 10,000 plus people.

To date, around 20 per cent of the homes and half of the planned amenities are built.

Hobsonville Point is a friendly place. It has been designed to encourage interaction. It is full of people who are excited to be part of something new and keen to foster community spirit. We invite you to get involved at whatever level feels right for you.

Welcome to the neighbourhood. It's great to have you.

Robert Graham

Hobsonville Point Precinct Director

Living in a community that is still under construction requires some patience. The key thing to remember is that the situation is temporary. If there is work going on in the immediate vicinity of your new home, it will come to an end and the builders and trades will move on to a new area.

Unfortunately, construction is a messy activity. HLC actively manages our developer partners, builders and contractors to keep them meeting deadlines. We make sure they keep public safety top of mind, that they fence off earthworks, and remediate damaged landscaping.

ON-STREET PARKING

Many of our new residents express concerns about a lack of street parking. Again, please be patient. Builders and trades use some of the on-street parks while they're in your immediate neighbourhood, but once they have moved on, there is more than adequate parking available. Hobsonville Point provides higher numbers of street parks than the Council requires. To help everyone, we encourage you to use your garage – should you have one – for your car. There are many storage solutions available these days that allow you to maximise garage space. Head-height shelves, lockers and bike racks can store items off the floor while keeping them accessible.

ART

The 5km coastal loop around Hobsonville Point will double as Hobsonville Point's free public art gallery in the landscape. Here are some of the works we've installed so far:

Hinaki, by sculptor Virginia King is inspired by the traditional form of the Maori eel trap (hinaki) and is sited at the end of the ferry wharf.

Remnants of Flight, by landscape artist/designer Nick Eagles, is situated in the plaza on the corner of Hobsonville Point Road and De Havilland Road. Each slice of granite replicates the 'V' form of a bird in a moment of flight.

The Memory Windmills, by artist Leon van den Eijkel is sited close to the Hobsonville Point Primary School.

Tiwatawata, by artist John Reynolds, is formed from 108 charred or stained poles which cut a dramatic line through Hobsonville Point Park.

Estuarine, by artist Louise Purvis, is inspired by Hobsonville Point's waterways. Estuarine winds its way over and around a gabion retaining wall, and is made of tubular baskets filled with scoria.

Clip, Tool, Heart of Stumps, by artist Steve Woodward, comprises of three stone sculptures referencing the regimented nature of military life, the pre and post-development landscape, and the ancient trees that once covered the area. You can find out more about Hobsonville Point's sculpture online at:

www: hobsonvillepoint.co.nz

BIKES

Hobsonville Point is designed to be a bike friendly environment, so please be friendly to riders on the roads.
